Press Release

Gallery Françoise Livinec is pleased to invite you on Friday April 14 from 6 p.m. to the opening of its new retrospective about Louise Babru's artworks.

"All of Louise Babru's work is part of the artistic movement of "biomorphism" borrowed by Jean Arp, Joan Miro, Louise Bourgeois. By playing of size and the light of her oil compositions, she invents a mysterious, equivocal and erotic universe." Françoise Livinec.

"I hope that Louise Babru's painting will surprise you [...] This work is neither figurative nor informal, it takes us to the heart of the world of forms to imbue us with a subtle sensuality." Iris Clert.
